Biography

In 2006 I took a pottery class and spent the next 8 years perfecting my pottery techniques. In 2014 I stepped into the world of abstract painting. I developed my own style and techniques from a desire to eliminate wasting paint. My paintings are often becoming reflections of the patterns in the world around me. Creating art brings great joy to my life.

Birds of a Feather Series

Beautiful Tantrum

My Birds of a Feather Series, inspired by my 2023 painting, Beautiful Tantrum, is a result of my ongoing desire to become one with the brush — allowing the magic of the motion in each stroke to create something greater as a whole.
