Biography

In 2006 I took a pottery class and spent the next 8 years perfecting my pottery techniques. In 2014 I stepped into the world of abstract painting. I developed my own style and techniques from a desire to eliminate wasting paint. My abstract expression has now begun to flow into my pottery glazing and my paintings are often becoming reflections of the patterns in the world around me. Creating art brings great joy to my life.

Artist Statement

Heavy Duty

Michelle's sentiment for this series can be summarized in the following statement:

Layer upon layer of color and paint
Adding texture and form to the flat —
Brush strokes, lines and patterns demand
Attention to their indelible place in time and space
